

Mrs. Mallory Defeats Mrs. Wightman, National Champion, in Cedarhurst Tennis Final

Former Queen Of Court Wins In Three Sets

Four-Time Champion Victor After Losing First Session; Score, 5-7, 7-5, 6-4

By Fred Hawthorne

Mrs. Franklin I. Mallory, who, as Miss Molla Bjurstedt, held the women's national championship lawn tennis honors four years in succession, came back into her own yesterday afternoon by defeating Mrs. George W. Wightman, the present national champion, by a score of 5-7, 7-5, 6-4, in the final round of the women's invitation tournament on the turf courts of the Rockaway Hunting Club, at Cedarhurst.

This match was postponed from the last week of August, partly owing to unfavorable weather at the time and largely because Mrs. Mallory, who was then Miss Bjurstedt, got married on that date. Nevertheless, however, it came back as most convincing manner and proved that she must still be reckoned with in the future when national honors are at stake.

Miss Ballin Umpires Match

For a long time yesterday it looked very discouraging for tennis down at Cedarhurst, the sun sullying refusing to come out. But Mrs. Wightman had come down from Boston especially for this match and she refused to be deterred by a struggle. Finally, at about 4 o'clock, it was decided to start the match, and Miss Florence Ballin climbed into the umpire's chair and called play.

Hardly had the girls started to practise before the sun broke through the clouds and the gallery brightened up appreciably. Mrs. Wightman won the toss and chose the service, taking the opening game. Mrs. Mallory retaliated by winning the next two, breaking through her opponent's service in the third game. The fourth game went to "deuce" twice before the games score 3-1 in her favor. Mrs. Wightman had not yet started to force the net position by her customary effectiveness.

With the start of the fifth game, however, the champion began aggressive attack that carried her straight through the next three games. She employed a chop stroke with the utmost skill, and these shots bothered Mrs. Mallory, planning to hit not getting much of a bound off the damp turf. Mrs. Mallory managed to win the eighth and tenth games, but then the Californian won the last two, taking the set.
